Crime Scene to Courtroom Admissions Visit Day is an opportunity to immerse yourself in a crime scene investigation, all the way through to jury trial. William Woods University provides a setting for you to explore majors in criminal justice, political and legal studies, social work and psychology.

TIME | SESSION | LOCATION
--- | --- | ---
9:30–10 a.m. | Registration
Students can register at this time and prepare for the day ahead! | Burton Business Building Lobby

10–10:45 a.m. | Join the Crime Scene
You will join an investigation including, DNA evidence, toxicology, case docket, security report, and probable cause statement. | Bernard J. Weitzman Model Courtroom

10:45–11:15 a.m. | Admissions Presentation
Individual visit with your admissions counselor to discuss admissions process and financial aid opportunities. | Burton Business Building Classroom 206

11:15–Noon | Observe Pretrial Discovery
Be a part of depositions, with witnesses and experts, including other agency services such as Psychology and Social Work. | Bernard J. Weitzman Model Courtroom

Noon–1:00 p.m. | Lunch
Have lunch on us, with current students and faculty in your major of interest! | Tucker Dining Hall

1:00–1:45 p.m. | Serve as Jurors for the Trial
Vote and act as jurors on the trial of the case you have been a part of over the visit. | Bernard J. Weitzman Model Courtroom

ARE YOU A 1ST TIME VISITOR TO WWU?
We would love to extend your visit to include a campus tour and more time with University Admissions to answer all of your questions!

Questions?
Contact admissions at 573.592.4221 or admissions@williamwoods.edu